The Vikings (also known as Norsemen) came from three countries of Scandinavia: Denmark, Sweden and Norway. The name 'Viking' means 'a pirate raid'. People who went off raiding in ships were said to be 'going Viking'. Vikings sailed the seas on longboats raiding and taking over land.

They first raided the Anglo-Saxon kingdoms in AD793. Eventually they conquered the land and took over many of the Anglo Saxon Kingdoms

The Vikings lived in large homes called longhouses. Like the Anglo-Saxon they were skilled craftsmen. Many worked as farmers. The women were good weavers and dyed cloth for clothes.
