Wellbeing Ambassadors

Thank you to all the children who applied for the role of Wellbeing Ambassadors. We were overwhelmed by the number of applications and creative ways the children shared their skills and suitability for the role. Thank you also to the families that supported their child with their applications. Sadly, we will not be able to appoint all the children, but we look forward to announcing those that have been successful in assembly next week.

The Music for Youth Festival 2024

A collection of regional festivals, the UK's largest festival for young musicians. As we kick-off our highly anticipated annual season, this year's festival will be held throughout March 2024, in over 30 locations across the UK, as well as a UK-wide online festival, titled Mentor Connects. Everyone's invited to take part!

WHO CAN TAKE PART?

Anyone can sign up to perform, or you can submit a recording of your performance for 'Mentor Connects'. It's free to take part, and we welcome any type of group, musical genre, or standard to sign up. The only requirement is that you are a group of two or more musicians aged 21 or younger.

The Music for Youth Festival is a unique and fantastic opportunity for young musicians to perform live and share their music, listen to performances from other groups, meet other musicians and gain invaluable advice and guidance from professional musicians and music educators: our Music Mentors.

If you attend a Music for Youth Festival or submit a recording to our Online Mentor Connects platform, you will be invited to attend the 2024 National Festival in Birmingham in July.

We are delighted to be holding two sets of audition in the area in 2024 and hope that you will consider joining us at either:

Kings Lynn Festival, Peter Hopkins Hall, Springwood High School, King's Lynn. PE30 4AW, Sunday 3rd March

or

Norfolk and Suffolk Festival, The Cut, New Cut, Halesworth, Suffolk IP19 8BY, Friday 8th March

Deadline for applications: Thursday 14th December 2023

You can apply here: Festival Registration Form 2024 | Music for Youth \(mfy.org.uk\)
