PTA fundraiser

Well done to Cerys and Beau from Polar Bears. In just two hours, their tabletop sale raised £112.50 for our PTA! Thank you to everybody who supported the children with this. What a fantastic achievement.

Drop Off - Long Lane

At morning drop off, we have witnessed children getting out of cars into oncoming traffic. Please ensure that children exit your vehicle onto the path, rather than into the road.

Come to our Book Fair!

We would like to invite all parents and carers to come to our Book Fair! From Monday 12th February to Friday 16th February, the books will be on display in our cookery room, from 3.15pm – 3.45pm. The children will be visiting the Book Fair during the school day and bringing home their written wish list.

If you would like to purchase any books, you can make a payment while at the Book Fair (using a QR code) and take the books straight off the shelf!

A Book Fair is a pop-up celebration of reading. The excitement for reading grows when a child can choose their own book to read, and a Book Fair helps pupils access the right books for them.

Every book sold at our Book Fair helps to earn free books for our school!

World Book Day

This is a chance for children to share their favourite books, discover new ones and become completely immersed in stories. Children are invited to bring a book to school and dress as a character from a book of their choice. Look out for the fun reading challenge that will be sent home next week and encourage your child to take part.

Autism Acceptance Week

For autism acceptance week, Norfolk County Council would like to celebrate young people's individuality. They are looking for young people to send in some short video clips of what autism means to them and what they need to feel accepted – they can be any length but maximum of up to a minute.

Videos can be difficult to send through email, but we can use we transfer (link below) to send larger video's.

WeTransfer - Send Large Files & Share Photos Online - Up to 2GB Free

They will then make a short film of young people from across Norfolk talking about what autism means to them and then they will share this with all Norfolk Schools and share at events through-out the week.

This is a great opportunity for young people with autism to educate their peers across Norfolk.

They will need the video clips into them by 18/03/2024.

Let Me Shine

To celebrate Autism Acceptance week in Norfolk, Norfolk Music Hub are asking educational settings across Norfolk to learn a song created in 2023 by Prior's Court, a registered charity providing education and residential care for young people with complex autism aged 5-25.

Offering an autism-friendly, fun, live music performance for families with young people between 5 and 25, in partnership with The Pavilion Theatre, Gorleston and Norfolk County Council.

This performance will include all your favourite sing-along pop and musical songs in a safe family environment, where families can enjoy the music together, joining in singing and dancing with a live band and dancers.
